Muhammad: An Authentic Overview Of His Life And Mission

Synopsis

There are over 1.6 billion Muslims in the world today. Yet, many people have little to no understanding about the founder of one of the world's largest and fastest growing religions. English speaking people have very few reliable and authentic resources which provide an overview of Muhammad's life. This book is designed to fill that void and not only serve as an introduction to Islam but also to establish a foundation through which the reader may sift through the negative propaganda against the man and his message.

Customer Reviews

This book is a fantastic introduction into the life of Muhammad. The author does a great job of providing succinct information regarding the major incidents in Muhammad's life, while staying objective and honest.

Excellent reading account of the Prophet's life (pbuh). It is well written and easy to understand. Good read for the student or the casual reader to keep refreshed on authentic history.

This is a quick read. It gives a concise account of Muhammad's life from a Muslim writer's perspective. It is not particularly well-written.

This is what Islam truly is!!!!

Good read for beginner. But there is more so read other books to complement
