I really liked this book. I think it was even better than the first one. I normally don't read action adventures, but I'll read anything David Archer writes. He's one of my favorites. I was given a ARC of this book. Grab it, I'm sure you'll love it too.

Molly is a spitfire! She always has been. The 3-D printer yezzzzzz! An excellent read. Lots of action & suspense, Multiple adventures, a closer look into certain characters Aroooooooooo, the best in the series so far. I've not been disappointed once with this series. Keep them coming!

I enjoyed this book very much. The interesting evolution of Noah (be it ever so slight)makes for good reading. David Archer has done it again. If you are a Noah fan you will love this book. I received an advance copy from the author for an honest review.

This is a must-read for anyone who likes action-thrillers. I love the Noah Wolf series. I've read all of them and am always waiting for the next one to be released. I cannot put the book down until I finish the story. If you like fast-paced thrillers, you'll love this series!

from one Noah Wolf to the next, I get to "know" the protagonists better and like them. this one is the best yet. I can't wait for the next. I really had to rush through my chores to get back to the book....great suspense!

I am never surprised by how great a book David Archer can write. His books are fast paced, believable and fun. I can't read them fast enough.I am an emailed subscriber. So I get early access for my honest and unbiased opinion.

Plot turns and twists kept my attention enough to read straight through without putting the book down. There was good action segments as well as a couple of touchy, feely parts. Good character development.

Another great book! I like following the story and getting to know the characters better. He does a really good job making everybody real and giving them each their own personality then developing

it. But, I don't think that a nerd and a tough guy are going to make very convincing floral arrangements so that wealthy bad guys would be deceived and think they came from florist. I worked as a designer for a few years and I'm no expert, but it was hard enough for me to make them acceptable, someone with no experience isn't going to do a very good job. Course maybe I'm just conceited and want to think it's hard so I feel more talented. :)
